[DESPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 12.

Comments of the Press on the Eastern Elections.

The Copperjohnson "Times" Sees it.

The "Herald" thinks the Result "Sublime."

The "World" in Mourning.

Central American and European News.

Sudden Death in Philadelphia.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Wm. M. Allen, delegate from California to the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, died in Philadelphia on Monday, the 8th, of cholera, and was buried in that city with Masonic and Odd Fellows' honors.

Comments of the Press on the Elections.

The New York papers of yesterday comment on the result of the election. The Times says the verdict pronounced by the people of four States is only a fulfillment of the expectation entertained by every man who has watched closely the purposes of the country. One great result which has been reached is the ratification by the people of the position assumed by Congress in relation to the President and the South. This has been a test to which every candidate and every platform has been subjected, and the answer leaves no room for doubt or question nor doubts. It is overwhelmingly against the last and clearly and unmistakably in favor of Congress and its policy. The people have been heard from and from their decision our form of Government provides no appeal. The South, it is to, will hearken and comply, and the President, if politic, will refuse to listen to a verdict which especially concerns himself.

The Herald says the results of the late elections are possibly doubtful. They reaffirm the high intelligence which pervades the Northern States, and their unanimous purpose to establish the Union on a solid foundation. They demonstrate the correctness of our estimates of the moral significance and pressure of the Maine election, and the inevitable solution of the vital question. They reveal a prevailing intensity of feeling in the Northern public mind which is without precedent. In the issues of these October elections was read the verdict of all the Northern States in the case of the President vs. Congress. We demand the policy of Congress. The President has made his appeal; he has his verdict, and we are sure that as a man of the people he will act accordingly.

The Tribune makes no editorial remarks.

The World refuses to believe the figures and says the Democrats, though perhaps beaten, have shown a vital strength sufficient to carry the November election. It says "God bless the old Democratic party! With all the contempt and abuse which has been showered upon it, it comes out of the contest worsted for the time, but with its colors flying, its honor untarnished, its numbers increased, and its courage higher than ever. A party that can stand where it has stood for the past is indestructible. It is written in the book of destiny that its future will be as glorious as its past; for it will yet be committed the task of restoring the Union.

The Daily News says: As the people have decided to renew the lease of power now held by the radicals, there is no disputing with them but and we can only hope that the fears which the language and conduct of many of their leaders have excited will prove to have been groundless, and that they will prove themselves worthy of the trust committed to their charge.

The Journal says that it has hardly noticed the error before adjourning last evening; the attention of the House was called to it, and it was with the understanding that the matter should be rectified this morning that the adjournment was made.

Mr. OLNEY reminded the House of the circumstances under which the mistake had been made. After the vote had been taken, some one suggested that there was a mistake and called for the reading of the list of voters on each side. The clerk read the lists of voters as now recorded. No objection was made—all seemed to be satisfied that it was correct—and the Speaker announced the adoption of paying their duties there, and that foreign ships be allowed to proceed to that place. It is also necessary that suitable buildings be provided in that city for storing goods in bond, and for a post office and Federal courts. It is also necessary to the safety of the public funds and records that a fire proof custom house be provided at Astoria.

Therefore, be it further Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives be requested, to urge upon Congress the passage of an act permitting foreign ships, after entering in the customs house at Astoria, to proceed to Portland, and permitting the Collector of the District to receive customs duties, and remitting the search of goods in bond at the latter place, and also that the necessary moneys may be appropriated for the purchase of sites and the erection of buildings for the several purposes aforesaid, and that the Governor be requested to forward copies to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

A great many bills were read a second time and ordered engrossed.

At 6 o'clock P. M., adjourned till 9 o'clock A. M. tomorrow.

Senate.

SATURDAY, October 13, 1866.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Wythe.

Mr. JOHNSON, from the select committee to whom was referred the petition of Sole Lodge No. 11, I. O. G. T. for an amendment to the license law, reported by bill—S. B. No. 43—To amend the act regulating the granting of licenses to sell spirituous liquors.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. BAYLEY, from the Committee on Corporations to whom was referred S. B No. 24—To authorize towns, cities and counties to aid public improvements—reported the same back with an amendment, which was adopted.

Mr. BAYLEY also reported back S. B. No. 27—To amend the act providing for private incorporations, without amendment, and recommending its passage.

Mr. WATSON, from the Committee on Claims, reported back S. B. No. 39—For the relief of Baker county—with amendments, which were adopted.

REPORTS FROM SELECT COMMITTEES.

Mr. JEFFRIES, from the select committee to whom was referred S. B. No. 22—To establish the Oregon Medical College—reported a substitute which was read first time.

Mr. JOHNSON, from the select committee to whom was referred the resolution to amend Rule 33, reported the same back with a recommendation that it be laid on the table, which was agreed to.

READING OF BILLS.

On motion of Mr. JEFFRIES, the rules were suspended and S. B. No. 22, to establish a medical college—was read a second time by title and referred to the Judiciary committee.

S. B. No. 43—To amend the law relating to the granting of licenses—was read the first time.

The following bills were read a second time:

S. B. No. 22—To amend the act relating to roads and highways.

S. B. No. 28—To establish an agricultural and mechanical college in Lane county. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The following bills were read a third time:

S. B. No. 29—To donate certain lands to the Corvallis and Yaquina wagon road company. Passed, yeas 17; nays none.

S. B. No. 18—For the relief of George W. Harrison. Postponed till next Tuesday.

S. B. No. 27—To amend the act providing for private incorporations. Lost, ayes 8; nays 9.

EMIGRATION.

Mr. JOHNSON moved that the special committee on emigration, to which was referred the bill to provide for the appointment of a commissioner of emigration, be instructed to report on or before next Tuesday at 10 o'clock, which was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned.

ADJOURNMENT—2 O'CLOCK—RESOLUTION CLEAR.

A message was received from the House, accompanied by H. J. R. No. 15—Concerning the ward as a revenue cutter and steamer at the mouth of the Columbia river—instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to lay the matter before the Secretary of the Treasury. The Senate concurred by an unanimous vote.

RELIEF BILL.

H. B. No. 102—For the relief of the joint committee to visit the Insane Asylum—was read a first time, The bill appropriates $10 to each member of the committee, and $72 to Mr. Durbin for transportation

PAY OF A CONTESTANT.

Mr. JEFFRIES offered a joint resolution directing the Secretary of State to draw his warrants for the payment of per diem and mileage to John A. Lutherbarry, contestant for the seat from Grant county.

The PRESIDENT said that in his mind there was some doubt whether such appropriation would not require a bill.

Mr. JEFFRIES, with the understanding that a bill for the purpose would be introduced, withdrew his resolution.

The Senate adjourned to 10 o'clock Monday.

House.

SATURDAY, Oct. 13th, 1866.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Leslie, of the M. E. Church.

REPORTS.

Mr. GINGLES reported back the road bill, which was adopted.

Mr. UPTON, from the committee to whom had been referred the bill to consolidate State taxes and relinquish the poll tax to the counties, reported a substitute, which was adopted.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT, chairman of the committee on engrossed bills, reported several bills correctly engrossed.

Mr. UPTON, from the committee on ways and means, reported on the bill to facilitate the collection of taxes, recommending that it do not pass.

Mr. GINGLES, from the joint committee to visit the Insane Asylum, reported having found the institution in a prosperous and flourishing condition, and that the contractors had fulfilled the obligations of the contract. The report was received, and the committee discharged.

Mr. GINGLES. I desire to say that we have simply reported what we saw during the short time we were there. The physicians of the Asylum can better know that we were coming, and we do not pretend to say that the institution is always in so good a condition, or that this is the average state of affairs.

Mr. WITHERS introduced a bill to amend the school law. Printing dispensed with.

Mr. COX introduced a bill to regulate the manner of taking testimony by depositions.

Mr. WHITE offered a bill to amend the act to regulate the Treasury Department. Referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. White, Hedges and Hicks.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT introduced a bill in relation to discipline of convicts in the penitentiary.

Mr. UPTON introduced a bill to pay the expenses of the committee to visit the Insane Asylum—appropriating $100 for the purpose—$10 to each member, and $72 to S. Durbin. The rules were suspended, and the bill read a second and third time.

Mr. COX. If amendments are in order, I would like to suggest that the members be allowed a little more money.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT. I move to amend so as to give Cox $20. [Laughter.]

Mr. WHITEAKER. I have an interest in this bill; but it is not in the payment of the services of Cox, but of my compatriots in rhyme. [Laughter.]

Mr. UPTON. I would like to inquire if the expenses of the gentleman from Lane, were strictly private. [Laughter.]

Mr. NICKLIN. I desire to say that it is my opinion that more money was expended by Cox than any other man. [Laughter.]

Mr. WHITAKER. I would say—

The SPEAKER. I think the gentleman is out of order. He has already spoken once on this question.

The bill passed by 39 yeas, to 12 nays.

The SPEAKER. It occurs to me that I was wrong in calling the gentleman to order, as the bill was on its final passage, and he had a right to speak twice.

Mr. HELM. I move that he be permitted to speak now. [Laughter.]

Hailed out of order.

Mr. OLNEY introduced a bill to pay mileage and per diem of contestants Stanley, Burch, Collins, Dodson and Dribbleby.

THE CASE OF HON. W. W. UPTON.

Mr. UPTON. It will be remembered that some time ago a resolution was introduced here questioning my right to a seat in this House, and I desire that that resolution should be disposed of without unnecessary delay. If there is anything which renders me ineligible to my seat as a representative, I wish to know it, that I may not impose upon the country by assuming power which does not belong to me. I desire, at this time, simply to present my view of the question raised by the resolution; and all I ask is, that the House act upon the matter in accordance with its own judgment of the law. At the last general election, I was chosen a member of this House, and about a month afterwards, by an act of the Common Council of the city of Portland, I was authorized to act as the attorney for that city. The Common Council has the power to appoint an attorney for the city and fix his salary. They have fixed the salary at $1,000 per annum. I do not deny that this is a lucrative office, but I contend that it is not an office under the State. The clause of the Constitution which is said to render me ineligible to this seat is as follows:

[Art. II., Sec. 10.] "No person holding a lucrative office or appointment under the United States or under the State shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislative Assembly."

I do not deny that I hold the office of City Attorney nor that it is a lucrative office. Then, the only question to be decided is whether it is an office under the United States or the State. It is claimed that it is an office under the State. Under the Constitution, all legislative powers are vested in the Legislature, and cannot be delegated to a corporation. All officers of the State must be appointed by the Governor or elected by the people or the Legislature. A corporation has the power to enact by-laws or ordinances and to appoint its own officers, but not State officers. There is a clear distinction between a president, secretary, or other officer of a corporation, such as a railroad or manufacturing company, or a city, and an officer of the State. I have never entertained a doubt about this matter. If I had not been perfectly satisfied about it I should not have accepted the office.

Mr. WHITE moved to take up the resolution from the table which was agreed to, and, after some little discussion, it was indefinitely postponed.—30 ayes to 27 nays.

MILITARY.

Mr. OLNEY said he was requested by the Governor to inform the House that he had received a letter from Gen. Steele, to the effect that three Inspectors had been chosen and an officer had been appointed to muster them into the service to organize Indians, to go to operate on the frontier. The absence of the Governor prevented him from communicating this information in person.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

The bill to define the causes for divorce and to regulate proceedings in suits thereof came up in its second reading. Various amendments were proposed and discussed, pending which, at 12 M., adjourned till 1 P. M.

AFTERNOON.

On motion of Mr. WHITE, the bill and amendments were laid upon the table.

A great many bills were read a second time and ordered engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Pendray's bill to license and protect foreigners mining in Oregon, was laid on the table.

BILLS READ A THIRD TIME.

Mr. GINGLES' bill to prohibit immigration of races was read a third time and passed—32 ayes to 4 nays.

The bill to amend the act in relation to Notaries, was read, and after some discussion, referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. White, Helm and Olney.

The bill for the relief of Richard Pendergrast, was put upon its passage and lost by 19 ayes to 18 nays, a majority of all the members being necessary.

Mr. WELLS' bill, proposing to change the time of assessing property, was read a third time, and after some discussion, was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Olney, Wells and Gingles.

The bill to repeal the militia law, was, after some discussion, referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Nicklin, Helm and Starkweather.

EVENING.

The following bills were introduced:

By Mr. OLNEY. To limit the penalties of official bonds of county officers of certain counties.

By Mr. HELM. To declare void the marriage contract.

By Mr. RAMP. To protect incorporated towns and villages against disorderly conduct.

By Mr. COCHRAN. To amend the general laws in relation to the execution of criminals.

By Mr. UPTON. For the improvement of the state Library.

Also a bill for the sale of the swamp and saudic.

Also a bill to provide a salary for the use of the office of the Secretary of state in accordance with the recommendation of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Mr. OLNEY offered the following joint resolution.

Whereas, The county of Tillamook consists of a little valley opening to the ocean and, separated from the rest of the State by the Coast Mountains, through which a road cannot be made by the counties in which the same would lie, nor by the State without creating a debt beyond the amount limited by the Constitution; therefore,

Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, That our Senators in Congress are instructed, and our Representatives requested to use their influence to obtain from Congress a grant of land along a military road to be constructed by such aid, from Astoria by way of Young's river and the north branch of the Nehalem river to and from Tillamook in Netarts Bay, and that the Governor be requested to forward certified copies of this resolution to said Senators and Representatives.

At 7:35 P. M., on motion of Mr. FOUDRAY adjourned to 9 o'clock Monday morning.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1866.

The Next Congress.

It is very evident that the next Congress will be no decidedly Union or "Radical" as to spoil all the hopes of those partisans of the President who have been predicting that Johnson would form a bogus Congress of Copperheads and rebels to supercede the loyal Congress of the people. That untoward complexion of events which has been so earnestly hoped for as loudly predicted, cannot now possibly occur. The Unionists will certainly have a strong majority in both Houses of the Fortieth Congress. After the 4th of March next they will be much stronger in the Senate than now. We have gained one Senator in Oregon; one in California; one in New Jersey; one in Kansas (by the appointment of a Radical to fill the place left vacant by the death of Gen. Lane) and one in Tennessee. The victory in Pennsylvania assures us of a Radical Unionist in the place of Senator Cowan. Indiana, the only Western State that was doubtful, will return a true man in the place of Henry S. Lane, who is understood to decline a re-election. Wisconsin, without doubt, will give her favorite Senator, Howe another term. Illinois will return Senator Trumbull or General Logan. Missouri is certain to send in the place of Senator Brown some man equally as radical as he. New York will also undoubtedly return Senator Harris or some other equally true Union man. Maryland is the only State having a Senator to elect which the Unionists are in danger of losing. They are certain of a gain of six after the 4th of March; so that they will have not less than forty Senators in the next Congress. Supposing the Senators from all the States are admitted, this would leave the Unionists eight majority. If the ten unrepresented States refuse to accept the Constitutional Amendment, of course they will not get into the next Congress or the next; in which event the Unionists will have a sufficiently large majority in the Senate to completely nullify the veto power of A. Johnson.

The entire House, with all the States represented, consists of two hundred and forty-one members. The law provides that a majority of these shall constitute a quorum. It is now morally certain that the Unionists will have much more than a majority in the next Congress. For the Fortieth Congress fifty-seven Union members have already been elected. Making allowances for possible losses in Kentucky and Tennessee, and in a few districts in other States, and we shall still have not less than one hundred and forty members in the next House. This is a large majority over all. If the revolted States are not admitted (and they will not be unless they accept the Congressional plan of restoration) the Union majority in the House, like that in the Senate, will be powerful enough to pass any measure it may see fit over the President's veto. Thus Congress is now, and will remain, "master of the situation." It will be impossible for the President, even should he desire it, to carry out the schemes so often indicated by his friends. It will be impossible to get up another civil war. The result of the elections is the complete frustration of any designs of this kind that may have been entertained in any quarter. A majority of Congress is a quorum; and as just shown, the Unionists will have a large majority in both Houses. A. Johnson cannot therefore get together enough Rebels and Copperheads to set up a rival Congress. If any of the men of valor who have been croaking about another civil war, still utterly refuse to be cheated out of the luxury of more fighting, they will have to join the Fenians or the Mexicans, either of whom will endeavor to accommodate them.

THE POLK COUNTY CONTEST.—In this case the Copperheads have again shown how they manage contests of election. It makes no difference with them how clear a case the contestant has if he is a political opponent of theirs; in that event they decide and vote unanimously against him. Mr. Dodson was unquestionably entitled to his seat. He had a fair majority of all the votes cast. The contest for county officers, which was settled by Judge Boise, virtually decided this fact. In the Grant county case the Copperheads laid great stress on the fact that Judge Wilson's decision was against the right of the Union members to their seats. But when a decision of a Judge is brought forward disproving the claims of members of their own party to seats in the Legislature, the Copperheads at once lose all their reverence for the dicta of the Court, and decide the matter, not in conformity with justice or the requirements of their oath of office, but according to the dictates of partisanship. They have shown that there is neither honor, honesty, nor consistency among them. They know no motive but party interest and acknowledge no obligations but to secure party success. It appears that the sitting members from Polk county were allowed to vote on each other's cases, and that the contest was decided in favor of one of them by this means. If we recollect aright, no such privilege was awarded to the Grant county members. Beautiful thing is Democracy, take it how you will.

CHARACTERISTIC COMPARISON.—The following paragraph appeared a few days ago in these columns:

Gen. Sherman was at Denver, Colorado, on the 12th of September. Sherman is the most industrious traveler in the world. In peace or war, he is the same energetic, tireless man.

Which the Democratic Review copies, and adds:

Mat. Bledsoe was at Jacksonville Oct. 2d, and Tom. Donahue was at San Francisco lately; both these fellows are industrious travelers." Can't you put them, Mr. Oregonian?

No sir. We leave to you the congenial labor of "putting" those Democratic murderers, and of comparing them and such Democratic traitors and assassins as Breckinridge, Lee and Stephens, with that great soldier and exalted patriot Gen. Sherman.

A SAILOR'S DESCRIPTION.—The following is a description by an "old salt" of a fashionable belle at an Eastern watering-place:

"She was crowding all sail across the room; couldn't tell whether she was a good-looking craft or not, she was so covered up by her canvas, and things. She had a spot on her port-bid, and another on her starboard side, and looked as if she had run her head into a flour-barrel and carried away as much as would make biscuit for all hands. She had a chain-cable which went over her mid-trunk, was shackled to her ear-rigs, came down over her out-riggers, and laid in amidships."

DIX AMENDED BY JOHNSON.—If any man attempts to haul down the American flag, ask him if he will accept a "national situation."

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 13.

The President Said to be about to Change His Policy.

New York, Oct. 13.—The Post's Washington special says, which says the Commercial expresses the fear that the President is about to change his policy. It is understood that two members of the Cabinet have advised him to declare in favor of the Constitutional amendment.

Election News.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Official returns elect Henry I. Cake Representative in the 10th District of Pennsylvania, not represented by Stanton, Democrat. The gain of two members in Pennsylvania offset the loss of one in Ohio and one in Indiana, leaving the Republican strength the same as in the present Congress, so far as elections have been held.

Storms on the Eastern Coast.

New York, Oct. 13.—The steamer Ariadne, which started on the 11th for Aspinwall with California passengers, still remains at anchor inside of Sandy Hook, weather bound. Time for we have heard of the loss of 19 vessels and 11 drowned in the storm which has prevailed since the 1st of October.

Fire in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 13, 5:30 A. M.—At 11½ o'clock last night, about five minutes after the audience had left, the Louisville Theatre took fire and is now a mass of ruins. The Jewish Synagogue is on fire, with all probability of being extinguished with slight damage. For a time the destruction of several contiguous buildings seemed imminent, but they are now out of danger.

The Russian Minister to the United States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Baron Stoeckl, for many years the representative of the Empire of Russia to this Government, waited on the President yesterday and was informed by the Secretary of State, to take formal official leave previous to his final departure from this country. The interview was of an interesting character, both from the intimate friendly relations of the Governments and the popularity of the retiring Minister himself. The Russian Government will be represented by M. Bodisco, Bodisco, who has been attached to the legation for a number of years. He was introduced as Charge d'Affairs in the usual appropriate manner.

Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Post's money article says the Loan Market is easy at 6@6 per cent. discount. The Stock Market is active; quotations are being recklessly advanced by the speculative combinations of gambling operators, who seem to have no difficulty in obtaining call loans from banks which have a large idle surplus, and from bankers who wish to invite business. Government securities are active and quotable better. Large inquiry has sprung up for the 6's of 1865. 7-30's are more in request, and the August issue is wanted. The second and third series are firm. 10-40's strong. Railroad shares buoyant with vigorous speculative demand which was not very well sustained to the close of business.

The Commercial's money article says the Stock Market opened at a general advance upon yesterday's quotations.

NEWS BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London, Oct. 12.—The money market is slightly easier. Consols 89¾ for money; 5-20's 71¾.

Liverpool, Oct. 12.—Middling uplands 13d, provisions easier.

By Steamer.

The foreign papers contain the following:

Marquis de Moatier, the new Minister of Foreign Affairs of France, previous to his departure from Constantinople, informed a deputation of Greeks that the political scenes at present existing in Europe would prevent Napoleon from making any revolutionary attempts against Turkey. The St. Petersburg Journal expresses the opinion that the secondary States have reason to feel anxious, since the publication of the French Utopia office circular. The writer adds that Russia does not desire such a severance of alliance or prospects of a new alliance as are indicated by the French Emperor. The Paris Journal, in an article on the subject of the Russo American alliance, contends that nothing of moment can result from the movement. The financial, political and social standing of Russia, are treated very severely in a few lines.

The English newspapers comment at some length on the subject of President Johnson's tour and the Constitutional question involved in his difficulty with Congress.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The certificate of incorporation of the Odd Fellows' Savings bank was filed yesterday. The Association is formed for the purpose of aggregating the funds and savings of the members of the corporation and others, and investing the same for their common benefit. Time of existence, 50 years.

J. R. Hoeppner, of the State Agricultural Society, is busy getting the articles pertaining to the agricultural products of California, intended for exhibition at the World's Fair, in Paris, ready for shipment on the steamer of the 20th inst.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—Mr. C. A. Lake, who arrived here with his wife, a few days ago, from Hardyville, gives the following items: The Piute Indians killed, on the 23d of September, a teamster and five mules. The killing took place only a mile from Hardyville. Mr. Lake brought the body in his wagon to Hardyville, where an inquest was held and the body buried.

The Indians in the Sacramento District were attacked on the 27th ult. Four white men were killed and one severely wounded. The names of the miners are Ira D. Woodworth, Metcalf Baker, Nat Benjamin, Samuel Rhodie and James Queer. This district is about thirty miles north of Hardyville. Ten citizens have organized and are after the Indians.

The gentleman who was shot by Mr. Keezer, as reported some time ago, has not recovered. The examination will soon take place when the particulars will appear.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Constitution, from Panama, with New York dates to the 21st ult., arrived at six o'clock this morning.

STATE ITEMS.

The Review announces that Mr. H. C. Huston will shortly take charge of its business and editorial departments.

The State Fair will commence on Tuesday. We tender our acknowledgments to the Secretary of the Society for a complimentary ticket for the Fair.

The Gazette says that all the warehouses in Corvallis are completely crammed with grain. Farmers are storing it in the hope of getting better prices by and by.

A great deal of freight has accumulated at the Dalles, for Canyon City. Owing to the dangers of the road, teamsters are demanding eight to ten cents per pound for hauling.

Dr. W. C. McKay, of the Warm Springs Reservation, and Mr. John Darragh, of the Dalles, have been appointed by General Steele to command the Indian scouts to be raised for service against the Snakes. The scouts will be raised immediately and put in the field. So says the Mountaineer.

The Canyon City stage, which arrived at the Dalles on Thursday evening, brought a good load of passengers. There are no new depredations reported on the road. When the stage left Canyon City, two men who had left Elk Creek for Canyon City had been out three days, and fears were entertained for their safety. Indian signs had been seen on the road, and it is generally supposed that the missing men have been murdered. A party was organized to go out and search for them.

The Mountaineer learns that an accident occurred near Fifteen-mile Creek, last Saturday by which a man named Oliver lost his life. He was traveling from town to Fifteen-mile Creek, and stopped at the latter place about three miles this side of the creek, to have a drink of water. He got down on his knees and was in the act of bending over to drink out of a spring, when a revolver he had in the belt fell out and struck on rock, causing one barrel to go off. The ball entered his left breast and, ranging down, inflicted a mortal wound. A man named Miller, we are informed, was passing with a team at the time of the accident, and although implored to convey the unfortunate man to Mr. Gilliam's house, refused to do it. Such inhuman conduct is more becoming a Snake Indian than a white man. The wounded man was subsequently removed to Mr. Gilliam's house, and a messenger immediately dispatched for a doctor, who went out with all possible haste, but found, upon his arrival, that he could do nothing for the wounded man. He died in about ten hours after the accident.

A correspondent of the S. F. Flag, writing about Oregon, says: "Other inducements will be given to this country the honor of being the New England of the West. If quiet and industrious communities, harmonious in their action, and sympathetic in their dealings; if cultivated farms with white farm-houses and mountain barns; if sturdy schools and churches, settling the country in thick succession and a God-living and law-abiding people, are the elements that make New England, then Oregon is surely the "New England of the West." The writer continues: Oregon in her industries and population, peculiar to herself, is not behind any of the Pacific States. In the spirit of her various industries she manifests that same energy and spirit that marks the people of this coast, and in the maintenance of the principles of freedom and justice, she has always stood loyal and true. Honorable are her past records, and indications in the present, point still in the same direction. Willing as she is among her people and rules in the counsels of her leaders. More than willing should California be to join hands with Oregon and labor together with her to shape the future of their mighty destinies. What her future is to be, no pen has written, but the spirit of the times points to a future greatness by the workings of a mighty civilization.

PRESIDENT'S POLICY IMPOUNDED.—We ask the attention of the soldiers to the following from the Richmond Examiner. It is Pollard's farewell to General Miles, and we give it as a specimen of the manner in which the reconstructed rebels treat Union soldiers who refuse to become their willing tools:

We bid Miles an affectionate farewell? Go, and never return—coward, inquisitor, torturer, executioner! Maledictions upon you! and may you feel in your own person all the pain you have inflicted upon the defenseless! When you die, may your carrion be thrown to the dogs, and may they, loathing your vile flesh, leave it to the unfastidious buzzard. You have polluted our air and soil too long. Go! Relieve us of an offensive object that provokes us to blasphemy. As we revere and love Jefferson Davis, so do we detest and condemn thee, hateful kite, obscenest of birds. Go!

Ben. Wood has retired from the New York Daily News. The paper has been reduced to half its original size, but is as prosperous as ever. It has lately been advocating the election of Henry Ward Beecher to Congress from Brooklyn district. Beecher must feel queer in such company.

LADIES, "Martin Washington" Hair Restorer is something extraordinary. Try it, and you will look ten years younger before using it a many days.

THE PLACE.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY, 59 First Street, is the place to get the finest SUN PEARLS, the finest PHOTOGRAPHS, the finest VIGNETTES—in fact, ALL of the latest and finest productions of the art. We saw some magnificent specimens in those paper portraits frames which those gentlemen have recently imported. They are perfectly splendid and will no doubt be in demand by those who delight in the beautiful.

PERSONS INTENDING TO VISIT THE STATE FAIR should not fail to supply themselves with a suit of that excellent clothing now on sale at the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET. THE LATEST STYLES OF DRESS AND BUSINESS SUITS are to be had there at the LOWEST PRICE. Do not fail to purchase from this extensive stock, as they are worn universally by everybody at the Fair. Messrs. KOHN & FISHEL are up to the times, and a call will satisfy you.

PORTLAND ACADEMY AND FEMALE SEMINARY.—Pupils are admitted at any time and are charged only for the remainder of the Quarter.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury, and cases of Female Complaints which require quite other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON
Is a most successful remedy for General and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of functional and general health from building womanhood to the close of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

MINOR GAME.—On Saturday last the game came off between the Pioneers and the Clackamas's, at Oregon City. The day was very fine, and at six o'clock all the party, accompanied by a number of ladies from the city, started out on the Senator. They were met in the river near the Clackamas Club and the Oregon City boys came aboard, and escorted to the Barlow House, where the party did ample justice to a splendid breakfast. They then proceeded to the ground, about a mile from the city, and the game began. A mistake was made in laying out the ground, the pitcher, basemen, and fielders, all were stationed facing the sun. This was unfortunate, as the playing was made unpleasant by this disposition of the men. After the game, they returned to the Barlow House for dinner. After dinner, the champagne began to circulate with the following results. The following toasts were drank:

By J. F. Miner, President, on behalf of the Pioneer B. B. Club: "The Clackamas Base Ball Club of Oregon City, second in the field, by date of organization, may be day's to come when it will be first by right of championship."

Responded to by J. L. Barlow, President of the Clackamas B. B. Club: "The Pioneer Base Ball Club of Portland, the champion club of Oregon, may they wear their laurels until fairly won from them."

Offered by Steel, "America's sons of the Base Ball fraternity, who for four years stopped the bat and ball to carry the musket and ball until they made the rebels feel for quarter."

Offered by ——, "The Ladies—We admire them for their beauty, appreciate them for their intelligence, adore them for their virtue and love them because we cannot help ourselves."

Offered by —— "The Ladies present from Portland."

Responded to by ——, "The Ladies of Oregon City."

Afterward facetious remarks and speeches were in order and many availed themselves of this opportunity of intoxication. We note the following:

Chandler—by Steel—Why are the members of the Clackamas Base Ball Club like the people of Rome? Because they have a Pope among them.

The Pioneers returned to this city on the Senator, much pleased with the courtesy and kindly feeling manifested by the Clackamas Base Ball Club. This is the first match game ever played in this State and it is a splendid beginning. Much applause is due the Oregon City boys. Their club has been organized but a short time, and they have so well improved their time that we predict that but a short time will pass before they wear the laurels. After the game they offered the winners the ball, which was most properly refused, as the game was a friendly one and not for blood. The following is the score's report:

CLACKAMAS NINE.

	RUNS.	HOME RUNS.
Randall, capt. catcher	3
A. D. Pope, pitcher	6	1
Jas. Shepherd, 1st base	6
A. Bridges, 2d base	3
G. Harding, left field	4	1
F. Barclay, 3d base	4
J. M. Zigler, right field	3
Mann, centre field	5
Chapman, 2d base	5
Total	45	2

PIONEER NINE.

	RUNS.	HOME RUNS.
Witherell, Capt., 1st base	0
Miner, catcher	9	2
J. Steel, centre field	3
J. Upton, short stop	5
Wadhams, 2d base	7
Quackenbush, pitcher	3
Buchtel, left field	11
J. R. Huff, right field	3	1
F. Warren, 2d base	9
Total	77	5

RECAPITULATION.—Clackamas Nine.—Randall was put out 0; Pope, 4; Shepherd, 4; Bridges, 2; Harding, 4; Barclay, 4; Zigler, 2; Mann, 3; Chapman, 4.

Pioneer Nine.—Witherell was put out 4; Miner, 3; Steel, 3; Upton, 2; Wadhams, 3; Quackenbush, 4; Buchtel, 2; De Huff, 3; Warren, 3.

Witherell put out 4; Miner, 3; Upton, 1; Wadhams, 5; Quackenbush, 1; Buchtel, 1; De Huff, 3; Warren, 1.

Runs on Missed Balls—Witherell, 4; Miner 2; Steel, 1; Upton, 0; Wadhams, 2; Buchtel, 2; De Huff, 2; Warren, 0.

Outs on Flyballs, 7; Bounds, 8; Foul Balls, 4; 1st base, 3; 2d base, 3; 3d base, 2; Home Base, 0.

TIME.—Two hours and forty minutes.

Clackamas won choice of positions and took the field.

RESULT.

	1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	5th.	6th.	7th.	8th.	9th.	10th.
Clackamas Nine	2	7	4	5	1	3	8	11	10		45
Pioneer Nine	20	22	3	7	3	6	5	0	0	7	77

It will be seen that the Clackamas Nine rapidly gained in the game advanced and the Pioneer Nine played carelessly toward the last. The first base also obliged to change Barlow for Zelber in the second inning which created disadvantageously.

In justice to the short stop it is well to state he is regarded by the whole of the base players, and particularly the first, and a good proportion of the muscle displayed by the first base player ought to be credited to the short stop.

J. ANDERSON, Umpire.

INDIAN TROUBLES.—The Indian difficulties in the north have now assumed such proportions that immediate steps must be taken for the suppression or extermination of the various bands that are on the war-path and have caused such loss to life and property during the past season. Mr. W. W. Mitchell, of Morrison Bath, is now in this city and will proceed to Salem to see Governor Woods. He has been delegated by the citizens of the Basin to lay before the Governor their situation and to immediate need of help. The feeling among the miners in the north is, that they are best fitted for a campaign among the Indians this winter. They think that if help in men or money were now given, they would be enabled to end the trouble; besides saving. The miners are well versed in the use of arms and know the country thoroughly. The loss of life and property during the last season is positively appalling. A further procrastination of the matter can but work injury. The leads of the Columbia River is of inestimable value to Portland and to Oregon, and the Indian difficulties must in some way be adjusted or the thorough deposition of the country will follow. In all of the camps are families. In Morrison Street, Silver City, Ruby City, Baker City and along all the streams are scattered our pioneer settlers, almost all of whom have relatives and friends here. They are all in danger. The stage lines are being stopped. Every day tells us new tales of murder and outrage. The people here would like to see a large force of soldiers sent there, and think that they would do much good, that they say that this latter plan is for a small bounty to be offered, of $100 each, that if this be done, the miners of all the Indian camps will immediately organize, and that during the coming winter, all Indian trouble will be finally settled. This is a very odd looked proposition, and is calculated to send a thrill of horror to the heart of the reader, and will probably be received with derision. Yet the contemplation of this sentiment among the miners let any of our readers converse with them and, they will find that any of the best men and those most likely to be ruled by right motives are in the minority. The pictures they draw are vivid and tragical. They tell of their friends with whom they have worked and endured the vicissitudes incident to miners' life, having been found riddled with balls or filled with arrows, their vigilant eyes and sleepless nights; no safety for life or property, and that to scrounge is not a virtue, &c., so has also the feeling of the miners. There is no probability of the bounty being offered.

HARRY ROSEWELL.—We learn of a heavy robbery, committed at Rock Boise on Friday, the 5th inst. Major Glenn, the Paymaster, was having the treasure sent up from Boise city to the Fort, a distance of about a mile. The way took the box containing the treasure and of it as the garrison. In the meantime, the Major stopped to take supper with a brother officer, and during the time he was gone—three-quarters of an hour—the box was abstracted, and has not since been heard of. There is about $60,000 in vouchers and $30,000 in legal tenders. A number of soldiers have been arrested, but as yet no clue found of the missing treasure.

SALE.—Henry Harbaugh & Stitzel have sold their stock to Messrs. Carter, Hayden & Co. The latter named gentlemen appear to contemplate extensive operations. The value of the property that has changed hands in this transaction is estimated at $15,000. We wish the new selling company success in their new enterprise.

AN EXCURSION.—On Friday last the school in District No. 2, E. Turner Principal, took an excursion to the mouth of the river on the propeller U. S. Grant, Captain Kern. The trip was a pleasant one, and the little folks seemed to enjoy themselves finely. A melodeon was taken along at which Miss Laura F. Kelly presided.

FINANCIAL.—We notice that the O. S. N. Company intend removing their office to the new rooms up stairs, in the north-west corner of the new brick block lately built by Ash their wharf. There will be two large safes to receive. They will be placed in their position by the aid of J. L. Atkinson's patent elevator.

POLICE COURT.—Before His Honor on Saturday last the following individuals: James Russel, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was sent to jail for one day.——H. Frank, of Glad Tidings, committed an assault and battery upon A. Miter, defendant, plead guilty to the charge and was fined $20 and costs.

REMOVAL.—We learn that the creditors of Moore & Fagan have organized a new company for the purpose of working the mines. The new company is styled the Oro Fino and Morning Star Company. Thomas Cole, Jr., and A. Garnian were elected Trustees and Mark A. King Secretary of this city, Treasurer.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—There will be sold to-day at 10 o'clock near the old Court House building, the steamer Commodore Perry, two scow boats, and implements for laying blacken pavement, under an execution by Sheriff Stitzel.

"D." SALES.—All will be pleased to learn that the work on B. street will be commenced this morning. As winter is rapidly approaching the work will no doubt be pushed to an early completion.

DEPARTURE.—The schooner W. L. Richardson, engaged in discharging salt at Capt. Dodge's works, finished Saturday, and dropped down the river for Oak Point, where she will take a cargo of lumber for San Francisco.

SENATOR'S VERSION.—The steamer Senator brought on Saturday evening the following freight: 43 boxes fruit, 20 sacks feed, 1 bale woolen goods, 40 boxes apples, and 876 sacks flour.

THE DALLES.—The Wilson G. Hunt brought down on Saturday evening a number of passengers and two emigrant families.

THE ENTERPRISE.—The steamer J. H. Couch arrived last Saturday evening and reports the Eldridge off the bar.

TO LET.—OFFICE ON STARK STREET, over Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express Office. Apply to

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
READ AND REFLECT.
Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask; We answer, "In one task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain The NERVES, the servants of the brain,
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day,
Each organ will, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant use, with railroad time,
The human frame and strength renew,
And thereby clear the *sp*irits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SURE and SPEEDY REMEDY!
As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, restoring the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no artificial preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
Against the various foul prepare,
That fever-inducing heavy air,
Drink not nauseous the water found
In prairies, wastes or marshy ground.
Wholesomely till you ply,
Neither you said ourself—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened—will to prevent.
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SURE ANTIDOTE.

To set it declare the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of low-lying water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influences of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS
Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysuretic pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by diuretic pills;
Dread diarrhœa, that cannot be
Cured by destructive surgery;
Slow constitution, fast decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of, maddens of the tomb;
For these (though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
Hostetter's Bitters—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constipation and costiveness, nervousness, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from causal or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
To wakeful sufferers or fated,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need such disease-a-shield;
To miners, California bound,
And rillers of wilt, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, and know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

If you should e'er get Married.

If you should e'er get married, John,
I'll tell you what to do—
Go get a little tenement,
Just big enough for two!
And one spare room for company,
And one spare bed within it—
If you'd begin love's life aright,
You'd better thus begin it.

In furniture be moderate, John;
And let the stuffed chairs wait
One looking-glass will do for both,
Yourself and loving mate:
And brussels, too, and other things,
Which make a fuss appearance,
If you can better afford it, they
Will better look a year hence.

Some think they must have pictures, John,
Superb and costly, too;
Your wife will be a picture, John,
Let that suffice for you.
Remember what the wise man said,
A feast and love within it,
Is better than a splendid house,
With hickerings ev'ry minute.

And one word me to cooking, John—
Your wife can do that best;
For love to make the biscuits rise,
Is better far than yeast.
No matter if each day you don't
Bring turkey to the table,
'Twill better relish by and by,
When you are better able.

For all you buy pay money, John,
Money earned every day;
If you would have your life run smooth,
There is no better way.
A note to pay is an ugly thing
(If thing you choose to call it),
When it hangs o'er a man who has
No money in his wallet.

And now when you are married, John,
Don't try to ape the rich;
It took them many a'follsome year
To gain their envied niches;
And if you gain the summit, John,
Look well to your beginning,
And then will all you win repay
The care and toil of winning.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11, 1866.

The country is thoroughly disgusted with the President. I do not think it is possible for me to give you an adequate idea of the feeling on this subject prevalent among the better class of citizens of both parties. [The elections tell the story.—ED. OREGONIAN.] The fact is the country at large did not believe the stories told by the Washington letter-writers respecting the President's conduct in that city, public and private, and now that he has paraded the country, and people see him as he is, they are astonished and disgusted, as well they may be. Notice what the traveling correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says: "The President desires to make his policy known personally to the people. He thinks he can convince them that he is right and Congress wrong. Many of his friends, however, think he is only furnishing ammunition to his enemies, and while increasing their bitterness is also spurring them to redoubled exertions."

The same correspondent says: "It is reported that Gen. Grant has said: 'I am disgusted with this trip. I am disgusted at hearing a man make speeches on the way to his own funeral.' There are no indications, however, that the relations between the President and Gen. Grant are not of an entirely harmonious character, although the General passes most of his time in other than the Presidential car when traveling."

That, printed in the Herald, which has editorially bespattered Johnson with the most fulsome praise, is a significant sign. The N. Y. Times, which has been even the Herald in praising everything Johnson has done, has been compelled to come out editorially in condemnation of his speeches. The Springfield Republican's Boston correspondent has the best hit at Johnson I have yet seen. Let me give a slice from it:

We read the newspapers a good deal, here in Boston, and most of us know already that "Secretary Seward has done his duty," that Andy was once an Alderman, that he has ambitioned in becoming a rustler, that he has faith in the people and leaves the Constitution in their hands. The rhetorical spectacle of Secretary Seward under the hand of the butcher Payne is more novel, but this is getting a little too common. The Secretary himself paraded his "broken jaw" at Detroit, and as he was not able to hold it, he had better give it in charge to Grant or Farragut, whose golden silence contrasts so beautifully with the bronze speech of the President and Secretary. As a last resort, George Francis Train, who spoke with the President at Detroit, he believes, may bring him to the east. Channel Mr. Pratt, the great American traveler, be signalled (by the promise of his accession in 1872) to join the Presidential party, and add to its present attractions? Boston ought to have another show as the "cradle city." Cleveland people want to leave and lift cream of the entertainment, thus far, though from Mr. Seward's anxiety in relation to the notice of Clevelanders at Niagara Falls, I should judge they had a good time there until the President's own party left. Cleveland's reception must "not be allowed to repeat." Andy will take affairs into his own hands if any such thing occurs again, and (to quote once more from the song I gave you a stain of last week) he will close the carnival by shouting:

"This show it can't go on,
There is so much confusion,
Stop driving the monkey pony, boy,
You'll injure his constitution."

The speech at St. Louis is regarded as the worst (upon the whole) of all the series. It was particularly blasphemous in character. Adverting to the fact that some people have called him a "Judas Iscariot" Mr. Johnson compared himself with Jesus Christ! The Radicals are everywhere praying that he will extend his tour—make it longer so as to take in all the principal cities of the country. Seward does not seem to see the drift of public sentiment but drives on with his mad Chief to destruction.

The question is often asked here, "Is Mr. Johnson drunk?" I do not gain any information tending to show that he has been drinking on the trip. His speeches are a reflection of the sober Johnson. They but serve to illustrate his natural coarseness. What he would do if he were drunk, or partially so, it is difficult to inquire. Mr. Seward is a pretty hard drinker, never taking his dinner without a profusion of wines; and sometimes with a liquid of a more ardent nature and earlier in the day. If Mr. Johnson, with his strong liking for whisky, withstood the temptation offered daily to him by Seward's example, it is a good deal to his credit. I do not hear the charge made against him at any of the places he has visited, that he was manifestly under the influence of liquor, and I doubt if he was. If he were simply a drunken braggart, the nation would feel disgraced, but might not be in danger. He is, on the contrary, an ugly man with all his wits about him. But if he is sonturated, it will be through his violent disposition. There is a firm determination on the part of leading men of all parties that he shall not be President again. Thank Heaven, and this trip, for this.

Mr. Beecher has been compelled to write a second letter. The first one caused a tremendous excitement among his friends, and especially in his church in Brooklyn. Nine-tenths of the members of his church were horrified by his first letter, and not so much because he advocated a part of the Johnsonian policy of reconstruction, but for the cause that he advised the soldiers of the country to vote for the candidates who formed that policy. That was counselling the destruction of the Republican party, and it was a cruel blow coming from such a quarter. Beecher now explains that he only meant to advise his friends to vote for Republicans who are in favor of the easy admission of the Southern members to representation in Congress! That is, if the candidates were Bill Fessenden and Henry S. Raymond, Beecher would go for the trickster and reject the noble, honest, steadfast statesman! It is easy enough to see that the popular preacher squirms at the reception accorded to his first letter. It is not strange that he does, for all his old friends are indignant. Here and there a woman, who adored him is in tears, but the male portion of his followers are indignant. No doubt he will soon be acting heartily again with the reformers of the country, for he cannot easily defy the law of his own nature. His placedic disformity with the lovers of justice, with the pioneers in the army of freedom. One of the strangest occurrences of our times is this "fall" of his back among the skolkers.

It is amusing to watch the performances of a class of "Johnson Republicans" in this city. We have a daily paper called the "Republican" and edited by John L. Swift and one Simon Peter Hanscom. Swift has got his pay by being made Naval Collector of Boston. How Hanscom is paid one can see from the following, which I cut from the correspondence of a Massachusetts paper:

Hanscom, for instance, who, as the saying is, "runs the machine" at Washington, only seeks to supply his own personal needs out of the operation. The other day a collector of revenue was appointed in one of the interior districts of this State, and the very day the commissioner was made, his check in favor of Hanscom for five hundred dollars was presented at the Worcester bank, and protested, so speedy being the operation that the new collector had failed to provide the necessary funds to meet the demand. Of course he had to hurry on the money, in dead fear that his appointment would be cancelled by the dispensing power. The same collector, by the way, was, early in the war, detected in a fraud upon the State and made to disgorge three hundred dollars of the plunder. An assessor, newly appointed in one of the large counties, is so thoroughly disreputable a character that his appointment can be accounted for on no other possible theory than that of the pure use of the office.

"Hanscom," you see, makes an excellent thing of the "Philadelphia movement," if the above account be correct, and there is no reason to doubt its truth.

The election-prospects are very good for the Republicans in most of the States. The great struggle, however, will be in the State of New York. The President's friends say they will gain five or six Congressmen in the State, and will carry in their candidate for Governor. I doubt their story, but there is enough of uncertainty to make the contest exciting. If the President cannot carry New York I don't know what State he can march of the old slave line, unless it be—well, I can't think of any, for New Jersey is a Republican State.

The West is on fire, and much of the excitement is owing to the Johnson trip. The visit will add 10,000 votes to the Republican ticket in Illinois. So say Logan, Yates and some of the leading Republicans there.

ONCE A WEEK

A Column of Gossip for the Gentlemen, on Subjects in which the Ladies take no Interest.

If you wish to know how quick you can run a mile, tell a red-headed woman her baby squints.

Women earn eleven cents per day in New York, making skirts.

The definition of love is—"A prodigal desire on the part of a young man to pay for some young woman's board."

Why is a fashionable lady like a sportsman? Because she bags the hare.

The combination of black and white still remains very fashionable. Black passementerie, dotted thickly with small white beads is in great vogue for trimming black silk dresses and black palotots.

Some Frenchman of a statistical turn of mind, who evidently has but little to do, publishes in a Havre paper some curious statistics of the average talk of man and woman. He has discovered that an ordinary middle aged man spends three hours per day in conversation, calculating at the rate of one hundred words per minute, or twenty-nine octavo pages per hour, which would amount to 600 pages per week, or fifty-two big volumes per year. Having ascertained these facts as regards the masculine portion of the human race, the statistician applied his best energies to ascertain the amount of words uttered by an ordinary and middle aged female per minute, and the amount of time spent on the average by that sex in general conversation. After the most patient investigation and abstruse calculation, this able arithmetician was compelled to give up the question, and confess the magnitude of the figures, produced even at the outset of the inquiry, baffled all human calculation.

They rather out-do us in England in regard to matrimonial advertisements, judging from the following:

"Ada Emily Jenny, just nineteen, fair blue eyes, and handsome, would like to be married as early as possible.

"Rosebud, who is seventeen, and pretty, having rich golden hair, wishes to marry a tall young man, about twenty-four years of age.

"Violet wants to be married to a tall man. She is tall and very good looking.

"Lalla Rookh would dearly like to be married. She moves in first-class society, and has £500 a year. She is eighteen, tall, and strikingly handsome."

Some of the applicants put the matter rather upon the ground of duty and destiny:

"Mary B., who has good looks, but does not wish to speak of them, wants to be married. She has read her Bible, and knows that marriage is the duty and honor of women. She is twenty-three."

"Catherine E. B., who has dark brown hair, and soft brown eyes, with pretty features and nice figure, wishes to fulfill her woman's mission, and marry. She will have money."

RESTRICTION OF THE APPOINTING POWER.—The Chicago Tribune, calling attention to an act of Congress upon the subject of restrictions upon the appointing power of the President, says:

A "rider" was tacked on an army appropriation bill, approved February 9, 1863, which seems to have been entirely overlooked heretofore in the departments, and, singularly enough, was never referred to in the recent debate in Congress on the proposition to regulate and restrict the appointing power of the President. This law has been brought to the notice of the President, and of course will govern him in cases to which it is applicable. Section two of that act provides "that no money shall be paid from the Treasury of the United States to any person acting, or assuming to act as an officer, civil, military or naval, as salary in any office, which office is not authorized by some previously existing law, unless when such office shall be subsequently sanctioned by law. Nor shall any money be paid out of the treasury as salary to any person appointed during the recess of the Senate to fill a vacancy in any existing office, which vacancy existed while the Senate was in session, and is by law required to be filled by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, until such appointee shall have been confirmed by the Senate."

We have examined the section of the law referred to, and find that the above quotation from it is correct. So that, in spite of the opinion of the new Attorney General to the contrary, Mr. Johnson finds himself balked in the little scheme he had arranged for filling vacancies. So far, so good.—Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

The people of the great West have a homely and forcible style of illustration. An example of this is recorded by the Toledo (Ohio) Blade, in a conversation which occurred between one of Andrew Johnson's "satraps and dependants" and a Michigan colonel. The Johnsonian suggested that, as a soldier, the Michigan colonel ought to turn out and pay his respects to President Johnson on his arrival at Toledo. To which the colonel replied:

"I do may, but I will not, for I have no respect for him."

"But," quoth the Johnsonian, "you will go with us and show your respect for Grant and Farragut, who accompany him, won't you?"

"My dear sir," replied the colonel, "there was once an old lady who kept a boarding house for laborers. One morning she came across a piece of tainted beef, which she purchased cheap and boiled for dinner. It 'smelt to heaven,' and put a boarder 'would touch it.' That evening she sliced and fried it, but it wouldn't do—it still stunk. The next morning she made hash of it; but it smelt louder and louder, when a boarder, who could stand it no longer, spoke his mind: 'Look here, old lady, you may bile it, you may fry it, or you may spoil good potatoes by hashing it with 'em, but that meat stinks, and you can't crowd it down me in any shape.' Now," continued the very positive colonel, "you may take Johnson boiled, fried, stewed or handwiched between two as good potatoes as Grant and Farragut, and he stinks. You can't crowd him down me at any price."

LAST SPEECH OF THE REV. JOHN PIERPONT.—The distinguished poet and philanthropist, the Rev. John Pierpont, recently deceased, presided at the late Spiritual Convention at Providence, Rhode Island, and delivered quite a lengthy and eloquent address. It concluded as follows, and is the more interesting as the last public declaration of one who has been good, great and renowned:

"I cannot see your faces nor hear your voices to-day so well, even, as I could last year. I gratefully acknowledge your kindness to me, and trust that, as the faith in which we are held together as brothers and sisters is not a new faith, but a faith that has been held by some in all ages, it will be held in all ages; and that as in our age, more than in the past, evidences are had that it is the true faith, more and more will gather round this standard; and although, before you meet again, I may have passed away, I believe that I shall be permitted, as then, to meet with those who are still left on this side of the stream which flows between the seen and unseen worlds. [Loud applause.]"

"HERE WE ARE AGAIN, MR. MERRYMAN!"—The following highly exciting paragraph, or something similar, turns up about twice a week, in every other paper we take hold of. We feel it our duty to help along the fame of so great and good a man, and will therefore give him one more lift toward immortality, and that, we think, will let us out. Here we are, Monsieur Alderman come again:

"He spoke of the gradation by which he had attained his present position; first serving as an Alderman in his own town, next as a member of the State Legislature, then Representative in Congress, Governor of Tennessee, United States Senator and Military Governor of Tennessee. The measure of his ambition, so far as political preferment is concerned, is full to overflowing."

AN EX-CONFEDERATE OFFICER ASSAILED IN NEW YORK.—The New York Sun of Sept. 13th says: "Not a little excitement was created in the lower part of the city on Monday morning, by the appearance of Col. Ives, formerly an Aid-de-Camp to Jeff Davis. A story affecting the character of Ives got abroad, and quite a mob assembled, hooting, jeering, and threatening personal violence. On arriving at his hotel, an uptown one, Ives was again assailed, but on addressing the crowd, declaring his innocence of the charges against him, the mob dispersed. Col. Ives, since the conclusion of the war, has been a resident of England, of which country he is now a citizen. His wife is a sister of Raphael Semmes.

A correspondent of the New York Times says that New Orleans "women will not sit in the same pew with Yankees or Union women." With rare exceptions the houses of "Confederate families are closed against all who did not fight for the rebellion. The result of this acrimonious recrimination, and, finally, open enmity."

THE MAINE ELECTION.—The State of Maine is so bolted by Custom-houses along its thousand miles of frontier, and so permeated by revenue officers, open and secret, of every sort and fashion, that we supposed the dispensers of Executive manna could not fail to gain on us in this week's election. Of their five candidates for Congress, four had been Republicans; the Republican office-holders voted with spites round their necks, while the Copperheads were stimulated by the prospect of earning a Custom-house berth each and another for their children. Never before had a minority so fair a chance to make sweeping gains as had the Johnsonites of Maine in their late contest. And just reflecting that Montgomery Blair had been helping us there by making Johnson speeches) we did believe that they would reduce our majority of last year by several thousands.

Yet they were beaten as never before—not merely beaten, but routed. It is a regular Appomattox. The Governor, by nearly 30,000 majority—all five Representatives to Congress by majorities of 2,500 and upward—all fifty Senators—seven-eighths of the House, and a moral certainty that Hannibal Hamlin will be returned to the United States Senate for six years from the 4th of March next—such are the trophies of a victory rarely exceeded in completeness or in importance. The vote is heavier than that cast for President in 1864, and the majority at least ten thousand larger than Lincoln's over McClellan. What more could be asked?

"Maine has settled the boundary question between liberty and despotism," said Justice Hammond, announcing the result of her election twenty-six years ago. She has now settled by an overwhelming majority the drift of the popular current, and rendered it morally certain that Johnsonism will find no ark of refuge in any of the loyal States.

Let it not be forgotten that the Republican triumph in Maine has been achieved by work. Rarely, if ever before, was a State so well canvassed as this year; never was the secret of the true Democracy more systematic, persistent and effective. By publications and speeches the people have been thoroughly enlightened; by organization and effort the laggards have been brought to the polls. Our friends in Maine have triumphed nobly, because they have nobly sought and deserved success. Let the lesson everywhere be noted and heeded.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be in the possession of everybody in the mining regions. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and the prevailing fevers consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the onerous life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. sep20 HODGE & CALEF, 97 Front St.

THE NEW LIGHT!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIversal necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one, is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been expended in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufresne, corner of Morrison and First streets.

making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantages of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants (such costly buildings as the one referred to above.
